DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,9-10,13-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Adachi et al. (US 5686780).

Regarding claim 1, Adachi et al. disclose a generator-motor comprising: a motor including a rotor and a stator and attaining a function as a motor-generator; and a control device arranged on an end surface of said motor so as to surround a rotation shaft of said motor and controlling drive of said motor (see figures 14-17).

Regarding claim 9, Adachi et al. disclose said control device includes first and second electrode plates arranged so as to substantially form a U-shape to surround the rotation shaft of said motor, a polyphase switching element group controlling a current supplied to said stator, and a control circuit controlling said polyphase switching element group, and said control circuit is provided on a ceramic substrate (col.1, lines 54-65) arranged in a direction similar to an inplane direction of said first and second electrode plates in a substantially U-shaped notch.

Regarding claim 10, Adachi et al. disclose said control circuit is resin-molded (68).

Regarding claim 13, Adachi et al. disclose said control device further includes a field coil control unit controlling current feed to a field coil different from said stator, and said field coil control unit is arranged on said ceramic substrate .

Regarding claim 14, Adachi et al. disclose a lead frame continuing to said first and second electrode plates from said ceramic substrate and said first and second electrode plates are arranged in an identical plane.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-8,11-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
